

VOLUNTEERING OPPORTUNITY Master of Ceremonies

Pavillon Afriques is a platform for the promotion of filmmakers from Africa and its diaspora and the advancement of the continent as a shooting destination.

The inaugural edition took place at the Cannes Film Festival 2019.

We are looking for a Master of Ceremonies for the 4th edition.

REPORTS TO: Coordinator

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES:

The successful candidate will be introducing speakers, presenting sponsors, announcing the program of the event, ensuring the transition between program sections, and making sure time constraints are followed.

DUTIES:

1. Represent the event
2. Keep the event on schedule
3. Introduce the speakers and sponsors
4. Tie everything together
5. Energize the Audience

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. Interest in and willingness to learn about the African film industry
2. Have a friendly disposition, a sense of humor, ad-lib skills, the ability to put people at ease and the ability to improvise.
3. Ability to work as part of a team and independently: rigorous, structured, details oriented
4. Excellent communication skills
5. Highly organized with the ability to prioritize
6. Fluent in English and French
7. Dependable and punctual

DATES: 16-25 May 2023

HOURS: to be discussed

Please send cover letter (or introductory video) and resume to pcyrus@pavillonafriques.com